Ondřej Krajíček

Chief Technology Officer, Board Member

As CTO, Ondřej is responsible for all Y Soft R&D operations, products and underlying technology. Member of the Board, Comprimato, a Y Soft Ventures portfolio company.

Full bio:

Ondřej Krajíček began his Y Soft career as the General Manager of Research and Development where he built a team of architects, developers and engineers while defining the R & D strategy and developing Y Soft's software and hardware architecture. In 2013, Ondřej moved into the Chief Research Officer role and, most recently, is Y Soft's Chief Technology Officer responsible for Y Soft R&D operations, products and underlying technology.

Ondřej also serves as a member of the Board for Comprimato, a portfolio company of Y Soft Ventures, assisting with product strategy, management and software development. In addition, Ondřej provides mentoring for other Y Soft Ventures portfolio companies and is active in the startup community in general, such as through StartupYard.

Ondřej has never fully left the academic world, building the Y Soft Applied Research and University Relations activity, being guest lecturer at several Czech universities and teaching Software Engineering and Software Quality Management at Masaryk University in Brno.

Ondřej started his professional career at Masaryk University in Brno acting as Developer, Chief Developer, Analyst, Tutor and Lecturer at the University for many years before transitioning to Y Soft in early 2007. He also earned his Mgr. and RNDr. (MSc. equivalent) degrees in applied Computer Science there.
